RICHARDS 8, 7, 8, 7, D

1. Heav'n is here, where hymns of glad-ness Cheer the toil - ers rug - ged way,
2. Where the sad, the poor, de - spair - ing, Are up - lift - ed, cheered and blest;

In this world where clouds of sad - ness Of - ten change to night our day:
Where in oth - ers' la - bors shar - ing, We can find our sur - est rest;

Heav'n is here, where mis - ery light - ened Of its heav - y load is seen,
Where we heed the voice of du - ty, Tread the path that Je - sus trod,-

Where the face of sor - row bright - ened, By the deed of love hath been;
This is heav'n, its peace, its beau - ty, Ra - dant with the love of God. A - men.
