Come Home As You Are

- 1. Come home as you are, who wan der a far In the fields of fol ly and sin;
- 2. The ta ble is spread with boun-ties and bread, E nough for thee and to spare;
- 3. The door is a jar, for all who a far In sin have wan-der'd a stray;

Thy Fa - ther doth yearn to hail thy re - turn And bid thee a wel-come with - in. And the husks of the swine will nev - er be thine While un - der His fa - ther - ly care. And the Fa - ther's sweet smile a - waits thee a - while; Then has - ten, O has - ten a - way.
