Honey in the Rock

The image shows a musical score for the hymn "Honey in the Rock". It consists of two staves: a treble staff on top and a bass staff on the bottom. The treble staff contains the melody, and the bass staff contains the accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the treble staff. The music is in a 4/4 time signature and features a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The melody is characterized by a steady eighth-note accompaniment in the bass staff and a more active melody in the treble staff. The lyrics are: "sins for the blood to cov - er; There's Hon - ey in the Rock for you. for you." The word "for you." is written on a separate line below the treble staff. The score ends with a double bar line and repeat dots. Above the final measure of the treble staff, there is a "Rit..." marking with a hairpin symbol indicating a deceleration.
