ONCE MORE I MUST TELL IT

1. Once more I must tell the old story to you, The story that I love;
2. Once more I must tell the old story to you, 'Tis pleasant to repeat
3. I tell it because it is what the world needs More than all else besides;
4. I tell it because I cannot restrain His love that fills my soul;

The story of Jesus so good and so blest, How He came His love to prove.
The marvelous story of Christ and His love, The story true and sweet.
I tell it because He to you and me came, And with us still abides.
I tell it because in His mercy He came And made me fully whole.

Chorus

Once more I must tell it, Once more I must tell it, Once more I must tell the old story so true; Once more I must tell it, Once more I must tell it, Once more I must tell it to you. yes, tell it to you.
