1. Over on the other side of Jordan, Yonder in the land of endless day
   When the Master calls us from earth’s darkness We shall sing His wondrous praise for aye.

2. In the Father’s house are many mansions Pearl-y gates are there and streets of gold, Best of all, our wondrous reign with Christ our King.
   We're going borne to Glory bye and bye, Bye and bye, we'll see how God has led us Thru the light and last behold. Bye and bye, bye and bye, We're going borne to Glory bye and bye, Bye and bye, bye and bye.

3. When we meet the wonderful Redeemer, When our sheafs of golden grain we bring, When we hear His "well done faith-ful servant," Joy-ful-ly we dark with loving hand. Bye and bye, bye and bye, Bye and bye, Bye and bye, Bye and bye, Bye and bye.

4. We will journey onward with rejoicing, Trust-ing when we can-not end-less day When the Master calls us from earth’s darkness We shall sing His wondrous praise for aye.
   Bye and bye, bye and bye, We're going borne to Glory bye and bye, Bye and bye, bye and bye, Bye and bye.

Words: Maud Frazer & Mary Bernstecher
Music: Robert Harkness
Bye and Bye

bye and bye, We're going home to Glory bye and bye.