O Grace Of God So Boundless

1. There was never a prince so royal, So worthy of deathless fame; There was never a friend so loyal, Such an ocean of grace, While His feet were impelled to mercy, Love immortal braved, As were brimming His cup on Calvary When He drained it that love in a name! There were never such springs of sweetness, Such streams of illumin'd His face, And yet never a fiend did fathom Such depths of dew we might be saved, O, was ever a heart so hardened, And can such ineffable bliss, Such powers of holy meet-ness As welled in that resurrection and shame, And never the vilest traitor Did bear such a gratitude be, That one for whom Jesus suffer'd Will say: "It is
