On The Resurrection Morning

RESURRECTION MORNING

1. On the res - ur - rec - tion morn - ing, Soul and bod - y meet a - gain,
   No more sor - row, no more weep - ing, No more pain.

2. Here a - while they must be part - ed, And the flesh its Sab - bath keep
   Wait - ing in a ho - ly still - ness, Wrapped in sleep.

3. For a space the tir - ed bod - y Waits in peace the morn - ing's dawn;
   When there breaks the last and bright - est East - er morn.

4. Soul and bod - y, re - u - nit - ed, Hence - forth noth - ing shall di - vide.
   Wak - ing up in Christ's own like - ness, Sat - is - fied.

Words: S. Baring-Gould
Music: Ira D. Sankey