1. Soft and sweet the bells are ringing, From the chapel old and gray;
2. Sweet er far than earthly music, Since the Christmas melody,
3. Love’s redeeming work is finished, Fought the fight, the victory won;

Sweet and soft the children singing, Christ the Lord arose today,
Glory, glory in the highest To the Father and the Son.

Chorus

Sweetly, softly sounds the anthem, For the stone is rolled away;
Glory, honor give to Jesus, On this Resurrection day.

Words by Eliza M. Sherman
Music by George C. Stebbins