Key of F Major.

S. M. and T. J. Denson and J. S. James, 1909

1. { At the sound-ing of the trum-pet (of the trum-pet), When life's work at last is o'er (last is o'er),
Shall we hark with rap-turous long-ing (rap-turous long-ing), To the call-ing of the roll (of the roll),

2. { Shall we meet the Sav-ior glad-ly, As He stands with out-stretched arm, Shall we
Or as we stand there shall we know We have failed to serve the Lord, On-ly

3. { Come, then let us do our du-ty, As we jour-ney on the way, That our
For the time is not far dis-tant When we gath-er, one and all, We must

And we gath-er in that cir-cle (in that cir-cle), Where we nev-er met be-fore (met be-fore),
Or shall we be fear-ful-trem-bling (fear-ful, trem-bling), Like some guilt-y fright-ened soul (fright-ened soul). } feel we've done our du-ty, And have no cause for a-larm, } wor-shipped Him half-heart-ed, Sel-dom read His pre-cious word. } meet-ing may be joy-ous, In that great and per-fect day, } hark-en to that trum-pet, And an-swer that great roll call. }
