"Others"

G

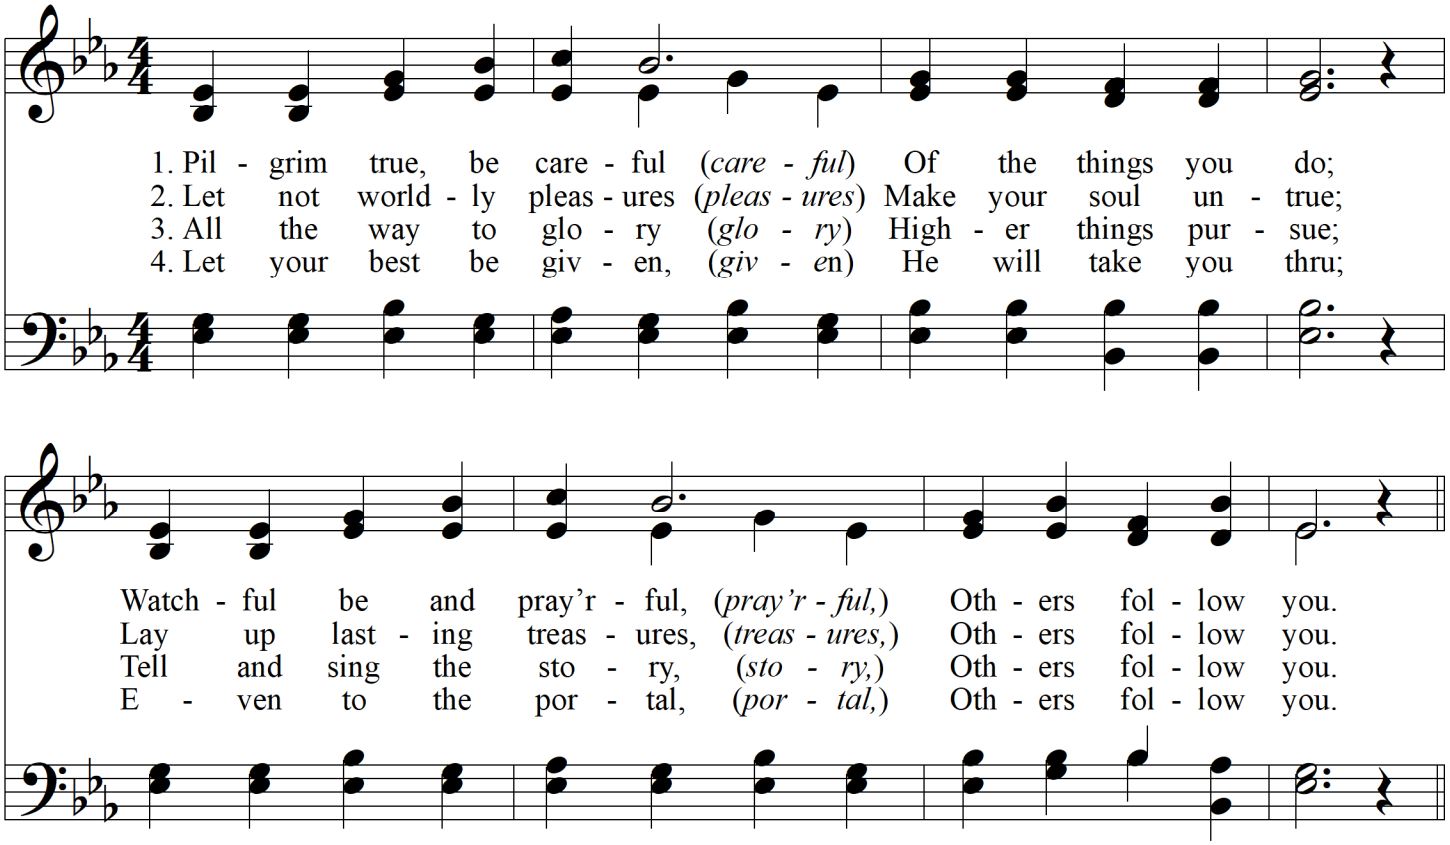

January 1, 1908, General Ballington Booth dispatched this one word "Others" to all the Salvation Army Posts of the world. Mr. Meigs, catching the spirit of the message, couched it in this well known poem.

Our King

Acts 17:7

F

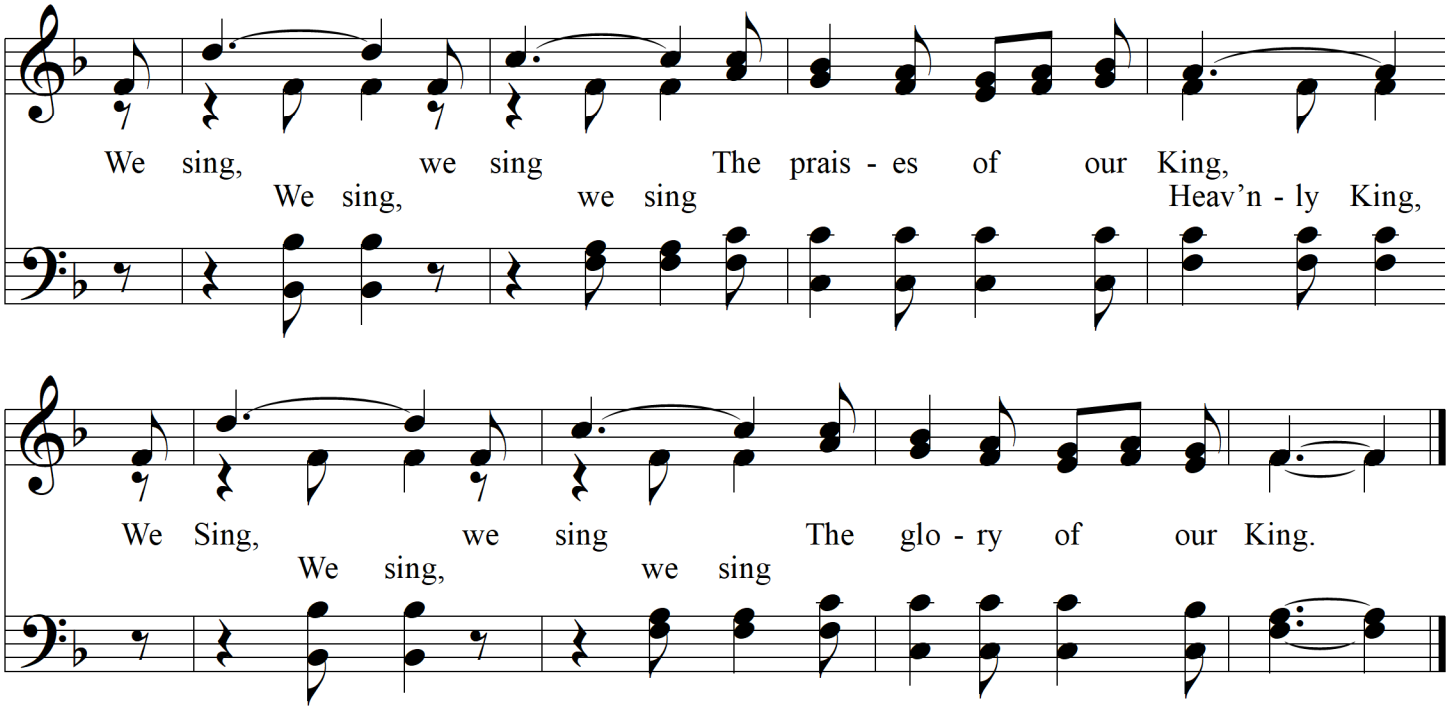

1. Our sweet - est songs of glad - ness, On this *de - light - ful day,
2. He lov'd the lit - tle chil - dren, When He was here be - low,
3. We love to sing; His prais - es And hear the sto - ries told,
4. O Sav - ior, bless - ed Sav - ior, We kneel be - fore Thy throne,

We bring to praise the Sav - ior, Who is the Life, the Way.
And tho' He's up in heav - en, He loves us yet we know.
Of Him when He was dwell - ing In Gal - i - lee of old.
And ask that Thou wilt help us To live for Thee a - lone.

Chorus

We sing, we sing The prais - es of our King,
We sing, we sing Heav'n - ly King,
We Sing, we sing The glo - ry of our King.

Our Lord Will Come Again

B♭

Moderato

1.From the house of man - y man - sions, From the home pre - pared for me,
2.We are watch - ing, wait - ing, pray - ing, For the hap - py, joy - ful day;
3.With the shout of an - gel cho - rus, And the sound of trum - pet strong,

Shall de - scend my bless - ed Sav - ior, And His glo - rious face we'll see.
Since our sins have been for - giv - en, All the dark - ness pass'd a - way.
Shall de - scend the heav'n - ly Bride - groom, And He'll gath - er from the throng.

𝄋

Shout the glad tri - um - phant mes - sage, Send the news o'er land and sea:
And our hearts are filled with prais - es, Hope il - lu - mines all the way:
All His cho - sen ones who love Him, Those who for His com - ing long,

D. S. – joy to be His cho - sen, Who will be for - ev - er blest,

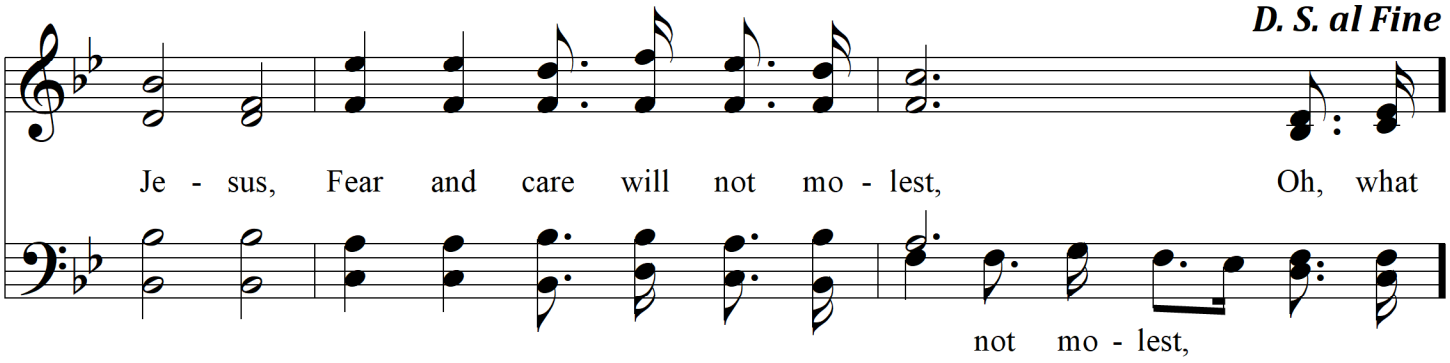

Fine Chorus

Our Lord will come a - gain. Then we'll ev - er be with

Our Youth Are Marching On

C

1. Mine eyes have seen the to - kens of an - oth - er Pen - te - cost,
2. There's a fire of con - se - cra - tion that is kin - dling in our youth,
3. There's a fer - vor of re - viv - al burn - ing bright in man - y hearts,
4. They un - furl Im - man - uel's ban - ner, and, be - hold, the thou - sands rise!

Mine ears have heard the gath - 'ring of a ded - i - cat - ed host,
They are vow - ing heart - y ser - vice to the Mas - ter and His truth,
There's a glow of gen - 'rous loy - al - ty their no - ble pur - pose starts,
They are look - ing up in pray'r to Him en - throned be - yond the skies,

My soul has felt the pres - ence of the prom - ised Ho - ly Ghost,
Their faith is pure and ar - dent, and their works are gos - pel proof
'Tis the spir - it of the fa - thers and the zeal that Christ im - parts
They are lift - ing up their broth - er from the ru - in where he lies

Chorus

Our youth are march - ing on. Look up, lift up, night is flee - ing! Look up, lift up, day is

Acts 17:27

G

For special use as soprano and alto duet throughout, alto borrow tenor in the first five measures of the chorus. Very effective for tenor and alto, tenor using soprano notes as far as chorus, then alto taking soprano, tenor singing its part to 6th measure of chorus, then borrowing alto notes for last three measures.
