A Bright Tomorrow

1. If aught of thy life should be savored with sorrow, Or part of thy path-way o'er-shad-owed with gloom,
   Then be not dis-mayed, 'twill be better to-mor-row, When the sun shall break forth in the splendor of noon.
   Then to Jesus draw near, Then to Jesus draw near,
   Ev-er be of good

2. Should ev-er the weight of a sad tho't per-plex thee, Or wak-en a chord that sounds harsh to thine ear, Then whisper a pray'r, for thy sis-tance is ev-er made known, Be one of the few who in Sav-iour will hear thee; And mark the sweet chime in the fall of a tear.

3. Go gath-er the sun-shine and scat-ter it sweet-ly; Where need-ed ass-chord that sounds harsh to thine ear, Then whisper a pray'r, for thy sis-tance is ev-er made known, Be one of the few who in Sav-iour will hear thee; And mark the sweet chime in the fall of a tear.

A Bright Tomorrow

Ev'ry be of good cheer,
Then to Jesus draw near,
Ev'ry be of good cheer,
He knows all thy sorrow,
And thy pray'r He will hear.
