Come Unto Me When Shadows Gather

HENLEY

1. Come unto me when shadows darkly gather, When the sad heart is weary and distressed, Seeking for comfort from your heavens Father, Come unto me, and I will give you rest

2. Ye who have mourned when the spring flow'rs were taken; When the ripe fruit fell richly to the ground; When the loved slept in brighter homes to waken, Where their pale brows with spirit wreaths are crowned.

3. Large are the mansions in your Father's dwelling, Glad are the homes that sorrows never dim; Sweet are the harps in holy music swelling, Soft are the tones which raise the heavenly hymn.

4. There, like an Eden, blossoming in gladness, Bloom the fair flow'rs the earth too rudely pressed: Come unto me, all ye who droop in sadness, Come unto me, and I will give you rest.
