Dear Savior, As In Olden Days

LAIST 8.6.

1. Dear Savior, as in olden days, On childhood's sunny brow,
   Thy hands with blessing Thou did'st lay, O bless the children now.

2. In many lands the children dear, To idols bow each day;
   O send the name of Jesus there, And teach them how to pray.

3. How joyful will the echo sound When all the children sing
   Their sweetest songs of pray'r and praise, And own the Savior King. Amen.

Words: Georgia B. Laisy
Music: S. M. Bixby

PDHymns.com