Down in the Valley

1. Are you dwelling in the sunlight? Is your path with roses strewn?
2. Is your day one round of pleasure, From the morn till set of sun?
3. Sweet it is to dwell in sunlight, Where the shadows never rise,

Do you walk with buoyant gladness In the steps that you have hewn?
Know you not of pain or sorrow? Are your victories all won?
Where the balm y, wafting breezes Kiss the blue, o'er hanging skies;

Have you reached the top of Pisgah, Climbing always firm and true?
Lend a hand to help your brother, Who is struggling hard and true,
But there's always in the shadow Some poor mortal, brave and true,

Don't forget that in the valley There is someone needing you,

Down in the Valley

Chorus

Lend a hand to help a brother, Who is striving hard and true,
Don't forget that in the valley, There is someone needing you.

Lend a hand to help a brother, Who is striving hard and true,
Don't forget that in the valley, There is someone needing you.
