Glory Ever Be To Jesus

“Give unto the Lord glory and strength.” – Psa. 96:7

1. Glory ever be to Jesus, God’s own well-beloved Son;
   By His grace He hath redeemed us, "It is finished," all is done.
   Saved by grace thru faith in Jesus, Saved by His own precious blood,
   May we in His love abiding, Follow on to know the Lord.

2. Oh the weary days of wandering, Longing, hoping for the light,
   These at last lie all behind us, Jesus is our strength and might.
   May our souls His praises sing.

3. In His safe and holy keeping, 'Neath the shadow of His wing,

Words: Rian A. Dykes
Music: Ira D. Sankey

PDHymns.com