Let Not Your Heart Be Troubled

Words: Mary Rawles Jarvis
Music: George S. Schuler

1. O words of comfort granted For every need and care,
   The very message wanted To chase away despair;
   This sweet command of Jesus Was meant to be obeyed,
   "Let not your heart be troubled, Neither let it be afraid."

2. When disappointment scatters Your hopes like autumn leaves;
   When all is lost that matters, And all is left that grieves;
   When chastisement and sorrow On darkened days are laid,
   "Let not your heart be troubled, Neither let it be afraid."

3. When past sins rise unbidden, To spoil the present good,
   And all the light is hidden By some despising mood,
   "Fear not!" He saith; "In weakness, My strength is perfect made;
   Let not your heart be troubled, Neither let it be afraid."

4. When health and strength are failing Beneath the load of years,
   And toil seems unavailing, And life is thronged with fears,
   "Let not your heart be troubled, Neither let it be afraid."
   Let not your heart be troubled, Neither let it be afraid.
Let Not Your Heart Be Troubled

Chorus

O soul, re-deemed by Jesus, All heav'n is pledged to aid;
O soul, re-deemed by Jesus, All heav'n is pledged to aid;

"Let not your heart be troubled, Neither let it be afraid."
