Let Us Pass Over the River

1. When our work is ended, we shall sweetly rest, 'Mid the sainted spirits, safe on Jesus' breast; All our trials over, we shall gladly sing, Grave! where is thy victory? Death! where is thy sting? Tho' the dark waves roll high we will be undismayed, "Let us pass over the river, And

2. Earth hath many sorrows, but they cannot last, And our greatest troubles quickly will be past; If we look to Jesus, He will give us strength;
By His grace we shall be conquerors at length.
We'll exchange in heaven for a shining crown.

3. When the storm is over, sweet will be the calm, After life's long battle, bright the victor's palm; And the cross of anguish which now weighs us down, Weave the dark waves roll
We'll exchange in heaven for a shining crown.

This hymn was suggested by the last and dying words of Stonewall Jackson.
The closing lines of the Chorus are in his own language.
