Of our King. Praise, Oh,
Praise from day to day our King, e - ter - nal King. Praise in song and sto - ry

The first system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). It contains a melody with various note values including eighth, quarter, and half notes, and rests. The lower staff is in bass clef with the same key signature, providing a harmonic accompaniment with mostly quarter and eighth notes. The lyrics are written below the staves, aligned with the notes.

praise Him for ev - er - more.
Je - sus and His glo - ry, praise, Oh, praise our match - less Lord for - ev - er - more.

The second system of music continues the melody and accompaniment from the first system. It also consists of two staves in the same key signature and clefs. The melody in the upper staff concludes with a final note and a repeat sign. The lyrics continue below the staves.
