Some Day

Words: Eden E. Rexford
Music: F. M. Davis

1. I hear a song, a song so sweet, I try all vainly to repeat; Its melody and feeling lost and heaven won; And when the long rough way is path I may not know, But in God's hand my own I'll say, I'll sing if God wills some day.

2. Some day my journey will be done, Earth will be trod, I shall behold the face of God.

3. Some day I say, content to wait The opening lay, And He will lead me home some day.

4. When comes the time for me to go, The home-ward Some day, some happy day to be, My voice will learn its melody, And I shall sing the songs so sweet, Of rest and heav'n, at Jesus' feet.

Chorus

Some day, some happy day to be, My voice will learn its melody, And I shall sing the songs so sweet, Of rest and heav'n, at Jesus' feet.
