You And I

1. When the gates swing open wide, Shall we enter side by side, Thru the blood once shed on Calvary? Will the Savior bid us come, From His presence ne’er to roam, Thru a glad eternity, You and I?

2. When we stand before the King, Many trophies may we bring, And our joy into the Savior’s face; Sing the song the ransomed sing, While the toil and pray’rs and tears; Shining stars to deck our crown, You and I. bells of heaven ring, When we’ve run life’s weary race, You and I.

3. Yes, we’ll walk the golden street, And our friends with gladness greet, Look with You and I.

Chorus

Yes, we’ll walk the golden streets together You and I, You and I, You and I.
You And I

I: And we'll leave the city fair, no, never.
   You and I;
   You and I, You and I,
   You and I.

Chorus (vs. 1)

You and I; You and I,
Cleans'd from all our guilt and sin, With the

King of kings shut in, Life eternal we'll begin, You and I.
   You and I.
