Come, See the Place Where Jesus Lay

1. Come, see the place where Jesus lay, And hear angelic watch-ers say: "He lives, Who once was slain: Why seek the living 'midst the dead? Remember how the Savior said that He would rise again."

2. O joyful sound! O glorious hour, When by His own al-mighty pow'r He rose and left the grave! Now let our songs His triumph tell, Who burst the bands of death and hell; And every living err or lives to save. Victory, And triumph with their King, Amen.

3. The first begot-ten of the dead, For us He rose, our glorious Head, Immortal life to bring; What though the saints like Him, shall die? They share their leader's Words: Thomas Kelly
Music: Heinrich Isaak
