Depth of Mercy! Can There Be

1. Depth of mercy! can there be Mercy still reserved for me?
2. I have long withstood His grace; Long provoked Him to His face;
3. Now, incline me to repent; Let me now my sins lament;

Can my God His wrath forbear? Me, the chief of sinners, spare?
Would not hearken to His calls, Grieved Him by a thousand falls.
Now my foul revolt deplore, Weep, believe, and sin no more.
