Here Am I

1. Here am I, O Master! Ready to be used, Other lives to brighten and to cheer; Other hearts to fill with happiness and peace, and of woe; There to carry sunshine and goodwill and cheer,
and everywhere; Where I my bring gladness, joy and sweet content,

2. Send me, O my Master! Forth into the world, Into homes of sorrow
and of woe; There to carry sunshine and goodwill and cheer,
and of woe; There to carry sunshine and goodwill and cheer,
and everywhere; Where I my bring gladness, joy and sweet content,

3. Summon me on errands of Thy love and grace, Work for Thee, O Lord! as-
and of woe; There to carry sunshine and goodwill and cheer,
and of woe; There to carry sunshine and goodwill and cheer,
and everywhere; Where I my bring gladness, joy and sweet content,

4. Here am I, my Master, waiting for the word, Calling me to serve Thee
and of woe; There to carry sunshine and goodwill and cheer,
and of woe; There to carry sunshine and goodwill and cheer,
and everywhere; Where I my bring gladness, joy and sweet content,

Chorus

And to scatter joy and sunshine here.
Doing deeds of mercy as I go. Here am I, send And a help to others I may be. Here am I, send I will gladly do Thy bidding there.

Words: Rev. E. A. Hoffman
Music: Samuel W. Beazley
Here Am I

Here am I, send me, To deeds of mercy and of love, and of love.