My Sins Are Forgiven

1. As far as the west is removed from the east, He banished my sins, both the greatest and least; My sins are forgiven, Are yours?

2. Like clouds they had gathered, obscuring the sun; He blotted them out, there remaineth not one; My sins are forgiven, Are yours?

3. I could not have settled the least of my debts; He paid the greatest price, and He even forgets: My sins are forgiven, Are yours?

4. My sins were as scarlet, and crimson the stains; He made them like snow, and no vestige remains; My sins are forgiven, Are yours?

5. My guilt and my need His great love have revealed; Once wounded for me, by His stripes I am healed; My sins are forgiven, Are yours?

6. And this is the reason I'm pardoned today. Because with His blood He has wash'd them away; My sins are forgiven, Are yours?

Words: Ada R. Habershon
Music: Robert Harkness