1. Savior, breathe an evening blessing, Ere re-pose our spirit’s seal;

2. Tho’ destruction walk around us, Tho’ the arrows past us fly,

   Sin and want we come confessing, Thou canst save, and Thou canst heal.
   Angel guards from Thee surround us; We are safe if Thou art nigh.

   Thou should swift death cresc. . . . al . . . f
   Thou art May the

   Thou the night be dark and dreary, Darkness cannot hide from Thee;
   Should swift death this night o’er take us, And our couch become our tomb,

   He, who, Watch est

   Thou art He, who, never weary, Watch est where Thy people be.
   May the morn in heav’n awake us Clad in light and death-less bloom.
