Shall We Know Each Other There?

1. When we've cross'd death's solemn river, When this troubled life is o'er,
And we go to dwell for ev'ry, Where the weary weep no more;
In those bright and heav'nly places, Where the skies are always fair,
Shall we greet familial faces? Shall we know each other there?

2. Shall we meet our sainted mother, Who for many years hath slept,
Father, sister dear, and brother, Whom we oft have mourn'd and wept?
List to tones whose music only Chased away each shade of care;
In that fadeless light and clearer, Shall we know each other there?

3. Shall we see them robed in splendor, With no shadows on their brow,
Meet their loving smiles so tender; Which our hearts are craving now,
He Who's left such blessed promise, Gives us bliss beyond compare;
That have left the world so lonely, Shall we know each other there?

4. He Who soothes us in afflictions, He Whose love doth ne'er depart,
Breath His heav'nly benedic tions, O'er each griev'd and wounded heart;
Shall we know each other there? Shall we know each other there?
He this joy will not take from us, We shall know each other there.

Shall we know each other there?

Last verse – We shall know each other there,

Shall we know each other there?

We shall know each other there,

Shall we know each other there?
