Sing, Children, Sing!

Words: Mrs. S. K. Bourne, 1891
Music: R. Menthal

Sing, children, sing! Sing, children, sing! Sing the joyful Easter story, How the mighty King of glory,

Easter morning, When they came at early dawning, life immortal; He has opened wide the portal,

Pass'd the everlasting doors, Burst the tomb, and broke the bars, And the stone was rolled away, Sing the words the angels say,

Evermore to live on high In the home beyond the sky, "He is risen, do not fear; See the place—He is not here!" Joyfully receive the word Of our blessed, risen Lord.
