Take Thou My Hand

"I.......will hold thy hand." – Isa. 42:6

Words: Julia Sterling
Music: Ira D. Sankey

1. Take Thou my hand, and lead me—Choose Thou my way; "Not as I will," O Father, Teach me to say; What tho' the storms may gather?
Holy Spirit This heart of mine; Then in the hour of trial perfect image Help me to grow; Still in Thine own pavilion

2. Take Thou my hand, and lead me—I would be Thine; Fill with Thy will," Thou knowest best; Safe in Thy holy keeping, There would I rest.
Strong shall I be— Read-y to do or suffer, Dear Lord, for Thee. Shelter Thou me; Keep me, O Father, keep me, Close, close to Thee.

3. Take Thou my hand, and lead me, Wher-e'er I go; Into Thy love this heart to lay; When storms are o'er, I come to Thee.
Then shall I be Called to Thy holy face, When I with Thee shall rest.
