There's Work To Do

Words: George E. Lyon
Music: John R. Bryant

1. Why stand ye idle all the day? There's something you can do;
2. Don't say you are too young or old, Unfit and busy too,
3. Be up and doing for the Lord, And to His cause be true,

The field is wide, the laborers scarce, And there is work for you.
There is no need of such excuse, And it is naught to you.
He waits with open hands to bless, For all the work you do.

Chorus

There's work, There's work for you, yes work, There's work enough for you,
There's work for you, yes work to do,
In the highways, in the byways, You'll ever find work to do.
