This system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature. It features a melodic line with a long note at the beginning, followed by eighth and quarter notes, and a final long note. The lower staff is in bass clef with the same key signature and time signature, providing a harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving lines.

bu - gle note and cho - rus, See the con - q'ring ar - my of the Lord.

This system of music also consists of two staves in the same key signature and time signature as the first system. The upper staff continues the melodic line, ending with a final note and a double bar line. The lower staff continues the harmonic accompaniment, also ending with a final note and a double bar line.
