

LORD, THOU HAST BEEN OUR DWELLING PLACE

DOMINE REFUGIUM

W. MORLEY

1. Lord, Thou hast been our dwell in place, in all gen - er - a - tions.
 3. Thou turnest man to de - struc - tion, and sayest, Re - - - turn ye chil - dren of men.
 5. Thou carriest them away as with a flood; they are as a sleep; [in the morning they are like] grass which grow - eth up;
 7. For all our days are passed away in Thy wrath; we spend our years as a tale that is told.

2. Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever Thou hadst formed the earth and the world,
 4. For a thousand years in Thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past,
 6. In the morning it flourisheth, and grow - - - eth up;
 8. So teach us to num - - - ber our days,

even from everlasting to ever - last - ing Thou art God.
 and as a watch in the night.
 in the evening it is cut down and with - - - er - - - eth that we may ap - - - - - ply our hearts unto wis - dom. A - - - men.
