

Behold, It Is The Spring-Tide

C/E - MI

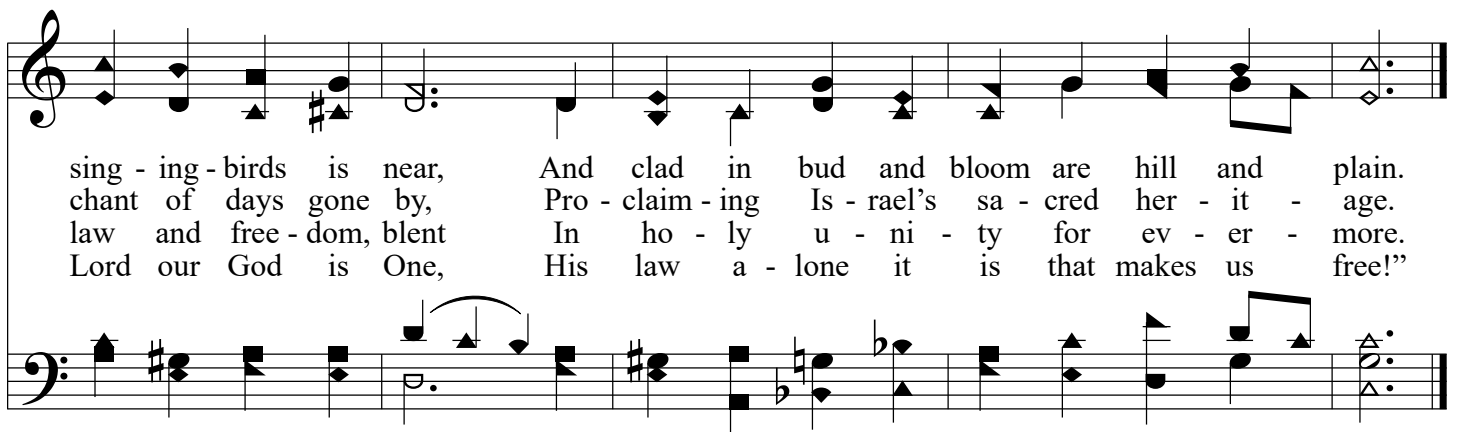

Allegro con brio

1. Be - hold, it is the spring-tide of the year! O - ver and
2. And in the spring, when all the earth and sky Re - joice to -
3. For as from out the house of bond - age went The host of 4. And still from ris - ing un - to set - ting sun Shall this our past is win - ter's gloom - y reign, The hap - py time of geth - er, still from age to age Rings out the sol - emn Is - rael, in their midst they bore The her - it - age of the her - it - age and watch - word be: "The Lord our God, the sing - ing - birds is near, And clad in bud and bloom are hill and plain.

chant of days gone by, Pro - claim - ing Is - rael's sa - cred her - it - age.
law and free - dom, blent In ho - ly u - ni - ty for ev - er - more.
Lord our God is One, His law a - lone it is that makes us free!"