

Thy Praise, O Lord, Will I Proclaim

G/D - SOL

Moderato

1. Thy praise, O Lord, will I pro - claim In hymns un - to Thy glo - rious name;
2. May'st Thou in mer - cy man - i - fold, Dear un - to Thee Thy peo - ple hold,
3. They o - ver - flow with prayer and praise To Him who knows the fu - ture days,

O Thou, Re - deem - er, Lord and King, Re - demp - tion to Thy faith - ful bring!
When at Thy gate they bend the knee And wor - ship and ac - knowl - edge Thee.
Have mer - cy, Thou, and hear the prayer Of those who palms and myr - tle bear.

Be - fore Thine al - tar they re - joice; With branch of palm and myr - tle - stem;
Do Thou their heart's de - sire ful - fill, Re - joice with them in love this day,
Thee day and night they sanc - ti - fy And in per - pet - ual song a - dore;

To Thee they raise the prayer - ful voice— Have mer - cy, save and pros - per them.
For - give their sins and thoughts of ill, And their trans - gres - sions cast a - way.
Like to the heav'n - ly host, they cry: "Bless - ed art Thou for ev - er - more."
