1. Mag - ni - fy th'E - ter - nal's name, For His mer - cies ev - er sure,
2. Let His ran - somed flock re - joice, Gath - ered out of E - gypt's land,
3. In the wil - der - ness a - stray, In the lone - ly waste they roam,
4. To the Lord, their God, they cry, He in - clines a gra - cious ear,
5. Them to pleas - ant lands He brings, Where the vine and ol - ive grow;
6. Come then, Is - rael, praise the Lord, In His ho - ly dwell - ing - place,

From e - ter - ni - ty the same, To e - ter - ni - ty en - dure.
As the peo - ple of His choice, Plucked from the de - stroy - er's hand.
Hun - gry, faint - ing by the way, Far from ref - uge, shel - ter, home.
Sends de - liv - 'rance from on high, Res - cues them from all their fear.
Where from ver - dant hills the springs Thru lux - uri - ant val - leys flow.
For the won - der of His word And the rich - es of His grace.
