

Splendor Of The Morning

D

Moderato

1. Splen - dor of the morn - ing sun - light Shine in - to my heart to - day,
2. Let me use the gold - en hours As they glide so swift - ly by;
*3. Let me prompt be in my du - ties, Ear - nest to im - prove my mind;
4. And when eve - ning comes and twin - kling Stars my con - duct seem to ask,

Flood each cran - ny of my be - ing With new strength and spir - it gay.
Freight them with a pre - cious freight of Truth and love and knowl - edge high.
Grate - ful to my guides and teach - ers And to all my com - rades kind.
May I look a - loft and tell them I have fin - ished well my task.
